WHAT:

camping, white water rafting, eating, singing, playing, campfires.

WHAT AGES:

Ages 6 and up.

WHEN:

Friday, June 16–Sunday, June 18

WHERE:

The New River in West Virginia

WHY:

To have fun, to meet new people, to experience God's power and creation in a real way!

HOW MUCH:

Families with children ages 6 to 11:
$100 per person.

Families or individuals ages 12 and up:
$100 or $120 per person.*

*Families with children age 12 and up, as well as individuals who would like a bit more of a challenge, can choose to raft a more difficult part of the river (Lower New River). It is $20 more per person for this

Here's what's included:

- We will travel to West Virginia to raft on the New River with the help of the Rivermen Company (www.rivermen.com).
- We will camp together Friday and Saturday nights and return home Sunday morning (must provide own tent).
- Breakfast, lunch, and dinner will be provided by the Rivermen Company on Saturday.
- Dinner Friday and breakfast Sunday will be on your own (bring a cooler with stuff to cook on the campfire).
- We will gather for smores Saturday night and will have service together Sunday morning.
- A full trip itinerary will be distributed at an informational meeting Saturday, April 22, at 9:00am, in the Atrium (Green Campus).
